Principal's Message

Dear Washington High School Families:

On behalf of all Washington High School staff, it is a pleasure to welcome you to a new school year! We are busy preparing for the coming school year and look forward to seeing our students very soon. For those of you who are returning, we are so glad to have you back. And for those of you who are just entering Washington High School, we are pleased to have you as a part of our family.

Let me also take this opportunity to introduce myself. My name is James Hester and I am honored to be the principal at Washington High School. My roots in the Parkland community run very deep. I grew up on the corner of 116th Street and Park Avenue and attended Parkland Elementary School, Keithley Middle School, and graduated from Washington High School in 1988. After college, I returned to Washington High School where I taught and coached for seven years and served as Dean of Students for one year. After two years as an assistant principal at Kentwood High School, I jumped at the opportunity to return to Washington where I served as assistant principal for three years. I am now entering my eleventh year as your principal, and want to thank our students, staff, and parents for making my time at Washington High School so enjoyable. Student failure rates and suspensions rates have decreased sharply; our graduation rate is up, state test scores are at all-time highs, the number of students taking Advanced Placement classes continues to rise, and school pride has increased dramatically. This past year, our hard work was recognized by the national magazine, US News and World Report, where we were one of only four schools in Pierce County to be selected as a medalist level school, and one of the top fifty high schools in the State of Washington. I am proud of the work being done by our students and staff. There is no place I would rather be than Washington High School!

Parent and community support is essential to helping us achieve our mission. I encourage you to get involved this school year by asking your child about his or her school work, checking grades online, contacting the school, and attending co-curricular events and activities. Attached is a flyer about our annual Back to School and College Career Night to be held in the Patriot Dome on September 21st from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. A light dinner will be served in the cafeteria at 6 p.m.; doors to the gym will be open at 6:30 p.m. for Back to School Night. I look forward to seeing you on September 21st and at other school events soon.

Best wishes to you and your family. Go PATS!

Kind Regards,
James

2017 WASHINGTON PATRIOT TRACK & FIELD SEASON SUMMARY

This year's team continued with the program's traditions of excellence. And although we are losing 18 graduating seniors, including Tavell Cox, Caleb Foxx, Richard Palmer, Isley Stoneham, De'Andre Williams, and Teagan Kline (who are all 4 Year Varsity Letter Recipients), the team looks to continue their successful ways as several talented and dedicated athletes are returning next year.

2017-18 CROSS COUNTRY NEWS

Are you interested in helping an already fun and successful sport achieve even greater heights? If so, then join Cross Country. Besides, it will also make you stronger and faster for other sports including Tennis, Basketball, Wrestling, Fastpitch, Soccer, Swimming, Baseball, and Track & Field. If you have any questions, then please contact Coach Culp at "aculp@fpschools.org".

Cross Country...

- is for everyone because every athlete will be equally valued regardless of their ability and they will participate in most of our meets. Also, performance will be stressed over place, improvement will be stressed over winning, and personal records (PRs) will be stressed over points
- is rewarding because every athlete will be challenged to improve physically, mentally, socially, and emotionally because emphasis will be put on our team norms of commitment, collaboration, courage, and class. As a result, their lives will be positively impacted now and in the future.
- is a family because every athlete will be involved in lots of different activities and extraordinary team camaraderie will develop over time. In addition, parents will be highly encouraged to cheer at meets, help with fundraisers, and provide nutritional items.

Summer Training is from June 26th thru August 18th at the WHS Track. We will be meeting on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM and on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM. Although it is not required, it is a great opportunity for you to check out the team before committing to join. In addition, it is a lot of fun and helps prepare you for the upcoming season. Plus, it is a well-known fact that the best teams and athletes train during the off-season. As incentive to participate, you will earn a customized running shirt if you run at least 200 miles.

- Get a blood test to check for immunity to the disease, OR
- Get a letter or signature on the Certificate of Immunization Status form from a licensed healthcare provider to verify that your student had chickenpox in the past, OR
- Get a Certificate of Exemption signed by your licensed healthcare provider OR
- Do nothing if your student has already received the two vaccines.

Please bring your shot record to the school's health room. Thank you – Frances Colon, WHS Health Room Technician

In Calculus, we will be writing and using a variety of calculator programs and labs for which instructions and downloading capabilities are only available for a TI-83 or TI-84 platform calculator. With this in mind, as well as your future use of the calculator, the Math Department suggests a TI-84+ or TI-84+ Silver Edition. There are many local stores which carry these as well as online venues. Please be aware that there is a TI-89 calculator that has more capabilities than the 84's. However, this is more calculator than any of our classes require and uses a platform for which the teachers do not have programs. Also, please remember to permanently mark your calculators!

August 2017

Dear Parent or Guardian:

As of July 2005, schools in Washington must make information available on Meningococcal and Human Papillomavirus diseases to parents or guardians of all students entering Grades 6-12.

Meningococcal Disease and Prevention

Meningococcal Disease

Meningococcal disease spreads by direct contact with infected persons by coughing, kissing, or sharing anything by mouth, such as water bottles, eating utensils, lipsticks, or toothbrushes. It can cause pneumonia, bloodstream infection, and meningitis (swelling of the covering of the brain and spinal cord). Severe disease can cause brain damage, loss of hearing or limbs, and death. Fortunately, this life-threatening infection is rare – we usually have only about 30-60 reported each year in Washington, including 1 to 8 deaths. Adolescents and young adults are more likely to get meningococcal disease, especially if they live in group settings, like college dorms.

Meningococcal Conjugate Vaccine (MCV4)

MCV4 protects your child against the most common types of bacteria that cause meningococcal disease. Washington provides all recommended vaccines for kids through age 18, available from healthcare providers across the state. Providers may charge an office visit fee and an administration fee to give the vaccine. People who can't afford the administration fee can ask to have it waived. Healthy teens should get one dose of MCV4 at age 11 through 12 years. Teens who did not get their first dose at that time should get a dose as soon as possible. A second dose (or booster) is now recommended. Teens should get a booster at age 16 through 18 years or anytime before college. Talk to your healthcare provider about this vaccine.

Human Papillomavirus (HPV) Disease and Prevention

What is HPV?

HPV is a common virus that spreads primarily through sexual contact. Up to 75 percent of HPV infections occur among people 15 through 24 years old. HPV causes most known cervical cancers, anal cancers, and genital warts. The types of HPV that can cause genital warts are not the same as the types that cause cancer. Some types of HPV can cause penile, anal, head, and neck cancers.

What are the symptoms of HPV?

Most of the time infected individuals have no symptoms and can spread the virus without knowing it. Some people know they have HPV because they have a symptom like genital warts. Women may find out they have HPV through cervical cancer screening (Pap tests) and HPV testing. Health care providers do not usually test for HPV unless they find abnormal cervical cell changes in a Pap test.

How can HPV infection be prevented?

The best way to prevent HPV infection is to abstain from all sexual activity. Even people with only one lifetime partner can get HPV if their partner had previous sexual partners. Using condoms during sex offers good protection against sexual infections like HPV. The HPV vaccines offer by far the best protection if given before sexual activity starts – vaccines do not get rid of existing HPV infections. The HPV vaccine can prevent infections from some of the most common and serious types of HPV that cause warts, cervical, and anal cancers.

HPV Vaccine

What HPV vaccines are available?

Two HPV vaccines are available:

- HPV4 – licensed for males and females. It protects against four types of HPV. These include two types of HPV that cause 75 percent of cervical cancers in women and most anal cancers in men, and two types that cause 90 percent of genital warts in both women and men.
- HPV2– licensed only for females. It protects against the two types of HPV that cause 75 percent of cervical cancers.

Who should get the vaccine and when should they get it?

- Females – the federal Advisory Committee on Immunization Practice (ACIP) recommends routine vaccination for all girls age 11 through 12 years old against HPV. For unvaccinated females, the recommendation goes up through age 26. Health care providers may also give the vaccine to girls as young as 9 years.
- Males – the ACIP recently approved a recommendation for routine vaccination of boys 11 through 12 years of age. For unvaccinated males, the recommendation goes up through age 21. Health care providers may vaccinate boys as young as 9 years and certain men 22 through 26 years of age.

To be up-to-date on this immunization, males and females need three doses of the vaccine. Talk to your health care provider about the vaccine schedule. HPV vaccine is not required for school in Washington.

Are Pap tests still recommended for females who get the HPV vaccine?

Yes. The HPV vaccine does not protect against all types of HPV that can cause cancer and warts, so females still need Pap tests.

Where can I find the HPV vaccine?

Washington provides all recommended vaccines for kids through age 18, available from healthcare providers across the state. Providers may charge an office visit fee and an administration fee to give the vaccine. People who can't afford the administration fee can ask to have it waived. For people age 19 and older, the vaccine is available from many clinics and pharmacies. Most health insurance plans cover the vaccine for people recommended to get it. Call your health plan to check your coverage. For adults without health insurance, the companies that make these vaccines have programs to help pay for them. Find out if your health care provider participates in these programs.
